

Al-Kindy College of Medicine/University of Baghdad
MBCHB Program

Pediatrics and Emergency Medicine Curriculum

4th year

2016-2017

TABLE OF CONTENT

	Topics	Pages
1	Vision and Mission	3
2	List of Lecturers	4
3	Introduction	5
4	Learning outcomes	6
5.	Curriculum content	7
6.	Teaching learning methods	8
7	List of Teaching	11
8	Assessment	14
9	Reading list	26

VISION

The department works to prepare competent doctors able to put their experience and skills in the practical field for the advancement of basic pediatric health care and the provision of advices and education of parents to promote the health care of the community.

MISSION

1. To provide students with information considering health advices and guidance on vaccines, nutrition, growth and development of children of different age groups.
2. To teach students the art of pediatric history taking and clinical examination and to provide them with information on the common pediatric problems.
3. To provide students with information through clinical training to upgrade their clinical examination skills of sick children of various age groups.